

GraphixStation (www.graphixstation.com) is an innovative & highly creative graphic design company with over 20 years of design and artistic experience. Owned and managed by Mary Akins, GraphixStation made its start in the screen-printing and embroidery industry designing for the Apparel industry. Based upon their success and the growing demand, they soon expanded into offering a wider range of graphic design and consultative services that now include logos (both new and rebranded ), corporate Identity packages, collateral and other marketing pieces, website design & development, electronic newsletters to name a few.

GraphixStation serves clients both large and small/mid-sized businesses and range from AOL, Xerox and The Brambleton Group to small - mid-sized local chains and businesses such as Scotto's Rigatoni Grill, Go Bananas, Carryout Coach, Loudoun Summer Music Fest and FunDogFred.com. Her most recent and well-known client is the current band sensation, 'The Jonas Brothers' (www.jonasbrothers.com). Mary Adkins provides each client, no matter their size, with the highest quality of service and design. If you have a project...we have an idea. GraphixStation - "Where Ideas Are Born."
